View from the Hill

Then you will know that that I am the LORD your God, and that there is no other. Joel 2:27

Let's imagine for a minute, you are all ears of wheat, or corn, or barley.

What growing season have you had?

Are you parched, not enough refreshment during the summer?

Did you get planted in soil without enough fertiliser? Maybe you are thinner and weaker than you should be. Perhaps pests have laid their eggs on you and you are being nibbled by small mouths, something else growing while you are diminishing. Did the rains come so hard that you were flooded, too long under water, your roots rotted? Did the late storms come? Battering you to the ground, sodden with hail stones? While we're there, mice and rats come to eat our grains. We have no defence except to wait for sun and drying wind.

Life can be very hard. But even so, you here have grown somehow, avoiding the mice and crows who wanted to eat your seed, the animals that burrow and disturb roots when young. You might have scars, disease, misery, as well as the joy of feeling the sun on you and the wind in your hair.

So now it is harvest time. Long ago the harvesters used knives, sickles, simple combines. The ears beaten flat were lost, rotting on the ground. Clever agricultural engineers built machines that could lift the ears up and harvest them.

If people are so clever that they can design ways to rescue crops, how much more amazing is God our Father, who can pick us up no matter what our circumstances, how beaten, battered, nibbled we are. Even rotten and half degenerating, God can rescue us. God wants us to grow tall, strong, to blow his wind of the Spirit through our heads, to see us nurtured with the right amounts of rain, nutrient and sun (symbolising Scripture, loving care from our neighbours, and understanding of God's supreme love for each of us). This life is not how God wanted it to be for his children.

We have one idea about God's power, mercy and love in the cycle of the field, preparing, sowing, growing and tending, harvesting, and enjoying the fruits of work. By lifting up our heads and asking God, he will send a harvester for us, someone to pray, to bring us close to that Love that knows no barrier, no limit, no holding back. For if time or circumstance has brought us to the end of our life, God offers Christians eternal life.

If at harvest time, or in the still winter days, we find time to stop and reflect, we might see times when God has fed and watered us, sent help, brought a comfort, given us a time of rest and recovery. Then we can also see when we have been that help or comfort to others. I pray for all our readers. Rev Carollyn

Peak Five – Pondering in the Peak – October

Harvest celebrations are in full swing and so it's a busy time for the Agricultural Chaplaincy as the team go out to lead and preach at services across the county. I really enjoyed being with the congregation in Thorpe on the 23rd September to worship and celebrate harvest followed by a very generous portion of meat pie at the harvest supper! Of course, harvest is a time to remember the generosity of God which we can see all around us in the natural world. Our participation in creation is essential to make the most of all that God provides, and so, we also thank our farmers for their hard work in another challenging year.

However, I wonder if God's generosity is much more than the abundance of good things that we receive and give thanks for? As Jesus warned in Luke 12, life does not consist in the abundance of possessions; it's how we use what we have that matters as the parable of the talents suggests in Matthew 25. In the book of Acts, we often find that generous giving is a sign and mark of the Spirit's power at work and generosity is described by Paul as a fruit of the Spirit. As we seek to be a generous people, our own generosity is an expression of love for God and neighbour. Every act of generosity starts as a decision in our hearts with some help from our heads!

I want to thank you all for your generous welcome and support as I continue to enjoy my ministry experience in the Peak Five. It's wonderful to discover the God of generosity in our everyday encounters and grow in faith as we learn together. I will certainly be enjoying this harvest season in the form of numerous apple crumbles, and try and remember that generosity starts in the heart in response to God's generosity to us.

Group Community Fire Safety – October 2018

Now we are moving into the cooler weather here are a few facts and tips to keep you safe:

Did you know?

- Around 100 fires a year are caused by faulty electric blankets.
- In England on average, 7,600 chimney fires occur every year

Heating your home.

Central Heating Systems

- Have your Boilers, Fires, Flues and Cookers inspected and tested by a 'Registered Service Engineer'.

Open fires.

- Be careful when using open fires to keep warm. Make sure you always use a fire guard to protect against flying sparks from hot embers.
- Make sure embers are under control and properly put out before you go to bed.
- Keep chimneys and flues clean and well maintained.

Heating your home (portable heaters).

- Always unplug electric heaters when you go out or go to bed.
 - Try to secure heaters against a wall to stop them falling over.
 - Only use gas or paraffin heaters in well-ventilated areas.
- Heaters consume oxygen so you could suffocate if a room is not properly aired.

Using electric blankets.

- Unplug blankets before you get into bed, unless they have a thermostat control for safe all-night use.
- Store electric blankets flat, rolled up or loosely folded to prevent damaging the internal wiring.
- Test electric blankets every 3 years.
- Try not to buy second-hand blankets and check regularly for wear and tear. Replace your blanket when it is more than 10 years old.

If the electricity fails.

Be prepared, Keep a torch and batteries handy, where you can find them.

Alternative lighting

- If you have to use candles or matches always take special care. Put them out completely before leaving the room or going to bed.
- Use a snuffer or a spoon to put out candles. It's safer than blowing them out when sparks can fly.
- Make sure candles are secured in a proper holder and away from materials that may catch fire – like curtains.
- Keep a mobile phone handy so you can still make an emergency call if there is a power cut.

Smoke Alarms.

Please ensure you have a 'Working Smoke Alarm' on each floor of your property. Derbyshire Fire & Rescue Service recommends that you test your smoke alarms every week. Please remember to test smoke alarms for older relatives and neighbours who might find it hard to reach their alarms but are at greater risk - over half the people who died in home fires last year were over 65 years old. A working smoke alarm can buy you and your family the valuable time you need to get out, stay out and call 999.

But you're more than four times as likely to die in a fire if you don't have a working alarm.

By pushing the test button on every smoke alarm, people could save the lives of their nearest and dearest - children, parents and friends alike.

Planning your Escape Route.

If your fire alarm does sound, and you need to get out of the property it is always best if you have an escape plan ready and that the whole family knows where to go and what to do. Follow the basic instructions below to help you effectively plan your escape:

- Plan an escape route and make sure everyone knows how to escape.
- Make sure exits are kept clear. – Remove obstructions!
- The best route is the normal way in and out of your home.
- Think of a second route in case the first one is blocked.
- Take a few minutes to practice your escape plan.
- Review your escape plan if the layout of your home changes.
- Keep door and window keys where everyone can find them.

If you require any further advice on any of the items covered in this article please call myself on 01332 831794 or the Fire & Rescue Service on 01773 305305

Keep safe, my regards to you all.

“From the Pews” - share your stories / quotes

We know that members of our congregations throughout the diocese have many stories, many moving and inspirational, to tell and we would really love to feature some of them in our quarterly magazine “Together”.

If you have been moved by the power of Christ, inspired others with your faith, or even have a funny story to tell of something that happened in church - or maybe a quote or saying then please share it with us by emailing us at: Together@derby.anglican.org.

Freedom Week, 14 - 21 October 2018

Freedom Week is a time to remember those trapped in modern slavery and people – professionals and volunteers – who try to tackle this abhorrent crime.

There will be a Chain of Light and Prayer across the diocese once again with a candle for each Archdeaconry. Freedom Week bookmarks will also be available.

We would like to encourage all who are interested to participate either through worship, hosting the candles, prayer stations or vigils. New types of remembrance are also welcome.

18 October 2018 is Anti-Slavery Day which may offer an opportunity to coordinate events across the Diocese or in deaneries.

Freedom Week is ecumenical and non-diocesan organisations are welcome to take part in their own context.

A monthly snapshot of Church of England life around Derbyshire

Archdeacon Christopher writes...

The Great Hesitation

It is said that when the Buddha achieved enlightenment he hesitated. Was what he had experienced uniquely personal, unintelligible to anyone else, or was it something that could be shared with others, that had some content? Eventually he decided that he couldn't just keep it to himself and so he started teaching, which is why we know about Buddhism.

Buddhist scholars have debated the significance of the Great Hesitation, as it is known, ever since and in great detail. As we know too well, it's very easy to become transfixed by the minutiae of religious argument and to miss the main point. The Great Hesitation suggests to me something profoundly important about the nature of religion and, indeed, about political and social debate more generally. Is the way to salvation just a private affair, which you have to achieve under your own steam; or is it something you are told about and sign up for?

We seem to live in a world where it's much easier to communicate with people but, ironically, much harder to have a proper conversation with them about the things that matter, because we lack a shared starting-point. The risk is that therefore give space for two kinds of infallibility to flourish. One is the infallibility of the individual.

My experience, my outlook on life, is the norm and everyone else needs to conform to it. The other kind of infallibility is that of the system or organisation which imposes its authority, whether that is a church, a political party, or a government.

Both of these stances express an important truth. Any system, religious or otherwise, needs to be able to mark its boundaries and continue itself in time. And it is important that individuals have the freedom to respond to what is on offer and to make sense of it for themselves. It is perhaps the genius of the Anglican way that it holds a mutually creative balance between the system and the individual.

Yet it is perilously easy for that balance to be disrupted, as some of the discussions in the Church of England and the Anglican Communion are warning us. 'Look before you think', the philosopher Wittgenstein used to say. Maybe the story of the Great Hesitation can help us engage more creatively and productively with each other.

The Venerable Christopher Cunliffe
Archdeacon of Derby

The Bishop of Derby's Harvest Appeal 2018

Whilst churches and parishes are celebrating Harvest Festivals and Suppers across the Diocese, we ask you to support and pray for The Bishop of Derby's Harvest Appeal.

This year's appeal is supporting Serenga Hospital in Durgapur, India, a joint project between USPG and CNI.

The Serenga Hospital was founded in 1914 and has 125 beds. Its name means 'The House of Christian Service'. The hospital also operates a community health programme in local villages that seeks to educate, offer preventative advice and care and create relationships between the hospital, the church and the community which will encourage patients to come to the hospital when they need medical help.

Please consider what activities your church or parish can do to support the appeal. Please send all donations to:

Cheques should be payable to The Bishop of Derby's Harvest Appeal.

The service was led by Bishop Jan, and Professor Hugh Rollinson, Course Director at the Faraday Institute for Science and Religion (and formerly a Reader in the Diocese of

Giving in Grace - A Useful Resource for a Stewardship Programme

*Geraldine and Joy -
Members of St John's,
Mickleover write...*

In 2017, the request to increase our giving to the Common Fund was received as our Parish MAP suggested it was time to focus on Stewardship. Our PCC was invited to a presentation on "Giving in Grace" as a possible approach to this subject.

We were inspired - "Jesus talks about money almost as much as he talks about God and His heavenly kingdom, so we should not shy away from raising finance and giving with a congregation." We were appointed as a working group to research the resources and present a potential programme to the PCC.

We discovered a wealth of resources to explore. Not all samples or suggestions were appropriate for our situation but they provided a template and a baseline to work from. We were particularly inspired by the constant references to quotes in the Bible. We were encouraged to pray and preach on the subject of giving and discipleship, review giving trends, gather facts, create literature to present the situation to the congregation, ask for responses, follow up these responses and provide an opportunity for thanksgiving.

Giving in Grace is not a programme that can be rushed - it is by no means a "quick fix" but a way to encourage a culture of discipleship and stewardship to grow and develop. It involved three months of preparation and planning (prayer and research), two months to present (preaching and literature) and one month to allow for responses and follow-up. It recommends that we focus on financial giving every three years and use the interim years to offer opportunities to consider the giving of time and talents with a gentle reminder to feature and review our finances annually.

We received an overwhelmingly positive financial response to our Giving in Grace Stewardship programme, exceeding the targets we had suggested. However, we must also highlight the practical ways that members of the Church can respond through offering time and talents to assist with the mission and ministry in our Parish.

In 2018, we are focussing for one month on the opportunity to respond to God's love with time and talents to further the mission and ministry of the church in our community.

Overall we have found the resources and approach suggested through the Giving in Grace website very helpful and would recommend that other churches take time to look at it -

2018/2019 Diocesan Directory to be published

The Diocesan Directory was last published in 2015 and, whilst currently out of date, remains a stable tool for clergy, readers, diocesan staff and PCC's.

We are pleased to confirm that the 2018/2019 Diocesan Directory is currently being prepared which we intend to publish before the end of the year.

In the coming weeks, all clergy, readers, PCC secretaries and treasurers will be contacted in respect of their details for the directory and your swift response and support would be hugely appreciated.

As you can imagine, with over 300 churches across the diocese, this is by no means a small task but we hope that the end result will help all churches and parishes to work closer together and provide relevant contact information to help build relationships and bonds for the good of church.

COFFEE MORNINGS

We had a very pleasant Coffee Morning on September 19th. More people than usual were able to attend which was great. A group of seven walkers from Lincoln, who were staying somewhere locally, came in to join us and they spent quite a lot of time chatting with us. It was a year ago when our Vicar, Carollyn McDonald, joined us for the first time on September 20th, two days after her licensing service. So it was lovely that she came along to be with us again. As a result of all the generous donations a total of £65.20 was given in aid of The Community Farming Network and a cheque for this amount has been sent to them.

Since our August Coffee Morning a letter has been received from Vicky Ryan, Community Fundraising Manager of the Midlands branch of Hearing Dogs for Deaf People, to thank us for our donation. She writes: 'The amazing £55 you donated will change the life of a deaf person. Please thank all supporters and attendees. You have given a deaf person their independence by helping to train one of our amazing dogs to alert them to sounds they would otherwise miss that so many of us take for granted like the alarm clock, doorbell or a lifesaving smoke alarm'.

She went on to add: 'Your donation will help a deaf person gain the confidence they need to escape the isolation that deafness can bring. A deaf person will now get the emotional support and companionship they need to get back out and about and feel part of their community again.'

Future Dates: October 17th and November 21st in the Village Hall at the usual time between 10.30 am and 12 noon. The charity to benefit from any donations on October 17th will be Readycall who provide befriending and practical support to people over 60 in the Derbyshire Dales, who are isolated, vulnerable or lonely. Please do come along. Everyone is more than welcome. R.H.

HARVEST SUPPER

It was good to see the village coming together again for the annual Harvest Supper.

Thank you to all the many helpers, before, during and after the supper, many offering their services before being asked. A very special thank you to our two auctioneers (Chris Wainwright and Matthew Round) who, yet again, managed to extract so much money from us all!

We are grateful to Danny and his team at Marks Butchers for staying late at the shop to cook our pies ready for collection at 6.30pm. Also to Runway Café in Ashbourne for donating the tins of mushy peas.

The grand total of £790.80 was raised which will be split between Padley Centre in Derby and Mission Aviation Fellowship (MAF).

Again, many thanks to everyone.

S.S.

- Village website – We are displaying the relevant accounting information that is required.
- Closure of public conveniences – The public conveniences have been closed since 14th May 2018. It is reported that there are not so many incidents of urinating at the rear of the premises. We await information regarding the sale of the property by auction.
- BT Telephone Box closure – Whilst the £1 payment has been cashed we still have not had confirmation of the closure and the telephone box remains in operation. Once closed TPC will seek to redecorate and put to an alternative use which is likely to be as a library facility.
- Dog mess around the village – No further incidents – take off the agenda for the next meeting.
- Potholes/road maintenance – No major potholes to report at the moment. It was noted that there was a road sweep of the village which is a rare sight
- Flooding on Digmire Lane/Hall Lane – Nothing to report.
- Village Local Plan signage – The total cost of the signage has been confirmed as £800 for the artwork and £280 for the signage i.e. a total of £1,080. With the grant given courtesy of Sir Richard Fitzherbert/Derbyshire Dales District Council the sign has cost £580. The signage has been erected on the Old Dog Public House and the bus stop. It is pleasing to see so many people looking at the signs for directions/information.

- Parked cars reducing visibility when exiting Digmire Lane – Nothing to report.

NOTES FROM THE HALL

OCTOBER 2018

Mervyn & Debbie At Home

Many thanks to Mervyn and Debbie King for opening their doors at Darfield Barn to all those that contributed to the parking duties at Well Dressings 2018. The operation went smoothly using the new gates off Rakes lane. Thanks to Catherine Etches for baking the cake, much enjoyed by all!

Wedding Open Day October 2018

Our final wedding open day is on Sunday 21 October 2018 in the Marquee and the Hall so please be aware that there might be extra traffic in the village that day.

Derbyshire Day 2018 -BBC Radio Derby

On Sunday 23 September we opened the Hall to over 40 listeners of BBC Radio Derby as part of Derbyshire Day. We were fortunate that the tickets 'sold out' within half an hour of the announcement on the radio with over 200 others on the waiting list. We were lucky to welcome Ian Skye from the Breakfast Show to the village on the day.

Local Projects Fund from Derbyshire Dales District Council

There is still £600 in the pot for any of the villages to claim from the Local Projects Fund at the District Council. You may recall that Tissington Parish Council claimed funds for a bench by the pond and Parwich Parish Council have claimed funds for paly equipment in the village.

Any queries please contact myself at the Estate Office on 01335 352200 or contact Administrator Ros Hession at Matlock ros.hession@derbyshiredales.gov.uk

Christmas in Neverland

David Walker and his team will be hosting our Christmas event at the Hall from 17 November to 3 December with the Hall being open to groups on weekdays and to general visitors at the weekends from 11-3pm. Please call The Estate Office for further details. It promises to be a quite a spectacle!

Church Fete

After the cancellation of the Fete due to bad weather the Tombola and Bric-a-Brac stalls were held on Bank Holiday Monday at the end of August. The draw took place at an earlier date and the sum of £392.85 was raised for Church Funds. Thank you to all who assisted and helped and those who donated prizes.

Joanne & Patrick Poitevin from Scopes4SEN would like to thank everybody for their visit at Tissington Star Gazing Night 15th September. Tissington Village Hall was packed.

A special thank you to Sir Richard for the projector and the screen, to Laura DeBell for handing out free cupcakes, and to Carol Unwin and David Walker for the bottle of wine for the raffle.

A BIG thank you to Laura DeBell for her hard work at the entrance and selling raffle tickets, and to Carol Unwin for handing out the free soup, tea and coffee.

Despite the clouds it was a huge success and we made £395,64 for our charity.

The 5 telescopes at the raffle did find a good home and we hope it will inspire the new owners.

Tissington Vintage Rally

Despite inclement weather our annual rally was a great success for the Air Ambulance fund. It raised £600.39 all thanks are due to Philip Wilton and Des Humphries and their team for the work they put into it. Thank you also to John and Susan Etches for the use of their field. Thanks go to exhibitors and everyone who attended.

*Thank you
Don Keyworth*
